Revenue Department

Notification

RD/LR/DIU/114/71

The following draft rules which the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu proposes to make under the Goa, Daman and Diu (Abolition of Proprietorship of Lands in Diu) Act, 1971 (Act No. 1 of 1971), are hereby published for the information of all persons likely to be affected thereby. Any objections and suggestions received by the Secretary to the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu in the Revenue Department from any person with respect to the said draft rules within 30 days from the date of publication of this notification will be considered by the Government.

DRAFT RULES

In exercise of the powers conferred under Section 25 read with Section 12 of the Goa, Daman and Diu (Abolition of Proprietorship of Lands in Diu) Act 1971 (1 of 1971) the Lt. Governor of Goa, Daman and Diu hereby makes the following rules, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.— (1) These rules may be called the Goa, Daman and Diu (Abolition of Proprietorship of Lands in Diu — Declaration of Conferment of Occupancy Rights) Rules, 1971.

(2) They shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.— In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires —

(a) "Act" means the Goa, Daman and Diu (Abolition of Proprietorship of Lands in Diu) Act, 1971;

(b) "Form" means a form appended to these rules;

(c) "Section" means a Section of the Act;

(d) Words and expressions used but not defined in these rules shall have the meaning assigned to them in the Act.

3. Issue of notice.— (1) Where a provisional declaration of conferment of occupancy rights under sub-section (1) of Section 12 is to be made in any village, the Assistant Civil Administrator shall issue a public notice in Form I calling upon all persons who have interest in the lands in the village to furnish either in writing or orally, information on the following points to the Secretary of the village Panchayat within whose jurisdiction the village is situated, within thirty days from the date of issue of the public notice:—

- i) The name and residence (in Block letters);
- ii) Whether proprietor/tenant/agricultural labourer/village artisan;
- iii) If proprietor,
  - a) Names of co-sharers, if any;
  - b) Description of land under clause (a) of section 4, and its area in sq. mts.
  - c) Description of land under clause (b) of section 4, its area in square metres and since when under personal cultivation.
- iv) If tenant/agricultural labourer/village artisan,
  - a) Names of co-holders, if any;
  - b) Description of land of which occupant under section 8; its area in sq. mts.
  - c) Since when in possession;
  - d) Name of the owner of the land immediately before the appointed date.
- v) The date on which information on items i) to iv) is furnished;
- vi) Signature or thumb impression of the person mentioned in item (i).

Note:— For the purpose of clauses (iii) and (iv) of this sub-rule description of property/land shall include survey number and sub-division number of the land or where the lands are not surveyed, the name of the land, if any, or boundaries thereof and such other details as may be useful for the identification of the land.

(2) The aforesaid notice shall be published in the village by beat of drums and by affixing copies thereof in the conspicuous places in the village and also in the offices of the Village Panchayat concerned and Assistant Civil Administrator.

4. Preparation and publication of the provisional declaration.— (1) As soon as may be after the expiry of thirty days from the date of issue of the public notice under sub-rule (1) of rule 3, the Secretary of the Village Panchayat shall forward to the Assistant Civil Administrator the information received by him under Rule 3 from each interested person, along with a report in Form II.

(2) The Assistant Civil Administrator shall on the basis of the information received under sub-rule (1) and information collected by making such inquiry as he may deem fit, and also after satisfying himself that no pasture or grass land is included in the information furnished by the interested persons, make a provisional declaration of conferment of occupancy rights in Form III.

(3) The provisional declaration prepared under sub-rule (2) shall be published by issuing a notice in the Form IV and in the manner prescribed in sub-rule (2) of rule 3, calling for objections, if any, from the interested persons, within thirty days from the date of the publication of the notice.

(4) Objections, if any, received under sub-rule (3), shall be entered by the Assistant Civil Administrator in the register of objections which shall be maintained for each village in Form V. He shall simultaneously give individual notice in Form VI to each such person who appears to him to be interested in the objection informing him of the contents of such objection and calling upon him to be present on the date the said objection is to be considered and decided.

(5) The Assistant Civil Administrator shall consider each individual objection and make an order disposing it of on the date specified in the individual notices issued under sub-rule (4):

Provided that the Assistant Civil Administrator may, in unavoidable or unforeseen circumstances to be recorded by him in writing, postpone or adjourn the consideration and disposal of the objection, to the nearest possible date.

(6) The order made under sub-rule (5) shall be announced to the persons concerned and also recorded against the respective objection in the register of objections maintained under sub-rule (4).

5. Final declaration.— (1) The provisional declaration published under sub-rule (3) of Rule 4, shall be final for the purposes of sub-section (3) of section 12, on the expiry of thirty days from the date of its issue, if no objections are received, and if objections have been received, it shall become final with such modifications if any, as may be made by the orders passed thereon by the Assistant Civil Administrator, or where an appeal has been filed, by the orders on such appeal passed by the Civil Administrator:

Provided that, in the case of proprietors, where an application has been filed by a cultivating tenant for restoration of possession under Section 7, the declaration shall be subject to such further modification, if any, as may be required by the orders passed on such application.

(2) The Assistant Civil Administrator shall send a copy of such finalized declaration to the Director of Settlement and Land Records, Superintendent of Surveys and Land Records and to the Collector of Diu, so appointed under the provisions of the Goa, Daman and Diu Land Revenue Code, 1968 (Act No. 9 of 1969) and also to the Village Panchayat within whose jurisdiction the village is situated, for their record.

Notification

LA/A/7/1309/71

The following Act passed by the Legislative Assembly of Goa, Daman and Diu received the Assent of the President of India on the 3rd July, 1971 and is hereby published for general information.

The Goa, Daman and Diu Administration of Evacuee Property (Third Amendment) Act, 1971

(Act No. 9 of 1971) [3rd July, 1971]

An Act further to amend the Goa, Daman and Diu Administration of Evacuee Property Act, 1964.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of Goa, Daman and Diu in the Twenty-second Year of the Republic of India, as follows:—

1. Short title and commencement.— (1) This Act may be called the Goa, Daman and Diu Administration of Evacuee Property (Third Amendment) Act, 1971.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Amendment of section 2.— After the proviso to clause (b) of section 2 of the Goa, Daman and Diu Administration of Evacuee Property Act, 1964 (6 of 1964), the following second proviso shall be inserted, namely:—

Notification

LA/A/7/1372/71

In exercise of the powers conferred on him by Rule 117 of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business of Legislative Assembly of Goa, Daman and Diu, the Speaker has ordered publication of the following Bill for general information.

The Goa, Daman and Diu Municipalities (Amendment) Bill, 1971

(Bill No. 16 of 1971)

BILL

to amend the Goa, Daman and Diu Municipalities Act, 1968 (No. 7 of 1969).

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of Goa, Daman and Diu in the Twenty-second Year of the Republic of India as follows:

1. Short title and commencement.— (1) This Act may be called the Goa, Daman and Diu Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1971.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu may, by notification in the Official Gazette appoint.

2. Amendment of section 78.— In the Goa, Daman and Diu Municipalities Act, 1968 (No. 7 of 1969), in clause (12) of section 78, after the words ‘in English’, the words ‘or in such other language in use in the municipal area as may be resolved by the Council’ shall be substituted.

Statement of Objects and Reasons

Under Clause (12) of section 78 of the Goa, Daman and Diu Municipalities Act, 1968, minutes of the proceedings at each meeting of a Municipal Council are to be kept in English in a book to be maintained for the purpose. The experience has shown that the majority of Councillors in a number of Municipal Councils are not well conversant with the English language. The Bill, therefore, proposes to amend the said clause (12), so that the minutes of the proceedings may be kept in any other language in use in the municipal area, as may be decided by the Council by adopting a resolution to that effect.

Local Self Government Department

Notification

3-121-71-LSG

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 308 read with section 221 of the Goa, Daman and Diu Municipalities Act, 1968 (No. 7 of 1969) and all other powers enabling him in that behalf, the Lt. Governor of Goa, Daman and Diu hereby makes the following Model Bye-laws and publish the same for the guidance of Municipal Councils.

Short title: These Bye-laws may be called the Public Entertainment (Precautions against fire) Bye-laws 1971.

Bye-law 1. The manager or proprietor of any place for public entertainment shall fulfil the conditions of these bye-laws as regards the means of exit and precautions against fire.

Bye-law 2. (a) Every lamp shall be provided with an iron ore stone bending over the chimney to prevent sparks flying upwards. Hanging lamps shall be suspended by iron rods or wire attached to the lamp and at least 4 metres long. All wall lamps shall be on metal brackets at least 15 centimetres long. The lamps shall not be less than 6 metres from the ground and not less than 1½ metres below the ceiling, with a metal protector over the top of the lamp.

(b) The use of open lamps of kerosene or other mineral oil of less than 150 degrees flash point as well as that of open light and torches (mashala) in or near the premises is prohibited.

(c) When gas light is employed in the place for public entertainment, there shall be separate and distinct gas service of meters for (1) the stage (2) the auditorium and (3) staircases, corridors and exits. All gas pipes shall be made of iron or brass.

Bye-law 3. All generators for acetylene gas shall be kept outside the building or other erection containing the auditorium.

Bye-law 4. In every permanent place for public entertainment there shall be provided on the top of the proscenium wall or in some other place to be approved by the Chief Officer two cisterns (connected with fire service in the place) which shall be kept always filled with water. Each of the cisterns shall be capable of containing at least 250 gallons of water for every 100 individuals of the public to be accommodated in the place. These cisterns shall be fitted with an outside indicator suitably placed so as to show clearly the depth of water therein, and the water must be kept clean and free from sediment and covered over with properly fitting covers so as to be mosquito proof and the cisterns shall be cleaned once every year. Suitable arrangements for storing water shall also be made in the case of temporary premises (i. e. tents, pandals, and such other places).

Bye-law 5. Every permanent place for public entertainment shall be provided with the sufficient number of hydrants the number of which shall be fixed by the Chief Officer.

The hydrants shall be of a diameter not less than 2 centimetres.

Such hydrants shall be connected by a main of at least 2½ centimeters diameter with the high pressure street main of the Municipal/Government Water Works and each of such hydrants shall be furnished with not less than 45 meters of hose with the regulation couplings of the Municipal Fire Brigade and with nozzles attached thereto. Such hose shall, when not in use, be flaked on iron saddles fixed above the hydrants.

Bye-law 6. (1) Fire buckets of approved design with a conical base shall be provided in such numbers as the Chief Officer may direct and shall be kept at all times full of water which shall be changed regularly twice every week. A pinch of lime shall be added to such water to prevent the breeding of mosquitoes. Buckets of dust or dry sand shall also be provided in such numbers as the Chief Officer may direct and the attention of the public shall be drawn to the water and sand buckets by placards legibly painted and fixed immediately above them.

(2) At least one bucket filled with dry sand must be kept in some accessible position on the stage in readiness for use in dealing with an electric fire.

Bye-law 7. (1) The chemical extinguishers of an approved type and of 2 gallons to 3 gallons capacity shall be provided in such numbers as the Chief Officer may direct and shall be placed on brackets 3½ metres from the ground. Directions for using them should in all cases be prominently painted on the extinguisher or on a card placed over the extinguisher and the attention of the public shall be directed to them by placards legibly printed or painted and fixed immediately above them.

(2) Chemical extinguishers shall be renewed or well cleaned and re-charged every 12 months, a record of which should be kept for inspection.

Bye-law 8. (1) All exits and other doors or openings intended to be used for the purpose of exits shall be indicated by notices in the language understood in the locality in white letters 6 centimeters long, upon a black ground painted on or above the doors at least 5 meters above the floor.

Notification

3-126-71-LSG

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of the section 308 read with section 261 of the Goa, Daman and Diu Municipalities Act, 1968 (No. 7 of 1969) and all other powers enabling him in that behalf and in supersession of all existing bye-laws in so far as they relate to matters covered by these bye-laws, the Lt. Governor of Goa, Daman and Diu hereby makes the following Model bye-laws and publish the same for guidance of Municipal Councils.

Short title.—These bye-laws may be called Control of Stables Bye-Laws, 1971.

Definitions. — (1) "Cattle unit" means 2 camels or 3 buffaloes or 4 oxen, cows or horses or 6 donkeys or 12 sheep or 18 goats, a pair of young animals under two years of age being in each case taken as the equivalent of one full grown animal.

(2) "Cattle stand" means any premises used for the stalling or keeping of horses, camels, cattle, donkeys, sheep and goats.

(3) "Controllable cattle stand" means any cattle stand in respect of which a notice has been issued by the Chief Officer under bye-law 1.

Bye-law 1. — The Chief Officer may at any time by written notice delivered to the owner or occupier of any cattle stand declare such stand to be a "controllable cattle stand" and shall issue such notice in respect of all cattle stands capable of accommodating any number of animals in excess of one cattle unit that are at any time so used as to bring either the stallage or open space allowance below the minimum prescribed by bye-law 2.

Bye-law 2. — In every controllable cattle stand there shall be allowed to every cattle unit accommodated there in a space at least 12 feet long and 24 feet broad as stallage exclusively assigned to such unit, and the stand shall include in addition to such stallage an open space free of buildings and projections aggregating at least 288 square feet every cattle unit and proportionately for any part of a unit.

Bye-law 3. — The Chief Officer shall prescribe in the notice issued under bye-law 1 and also in a notice posted on a board which shall be provided for this purpose at each controllable cattle stand by the owner the maximum number of cattle that may be admitted into such controllable cattle stand. The Chief Officer shall fix this maximum with due regard to bye-law 2 and 5 and to the degree in which the cattle stand approximate in point of structure, drainage, ventilation and cleaning arrangements to the standards prescribed by the Council and may from time to time increase the maximum, subject to bye-laws 2 and 5 in proportion as the owner brings the cattle stand more nearly into conformity with the highest standard prescribed by the Council.

Bye-law 4. — No person shall admit any animal into a controllable cattle stand when the maximum number of cattle prescribed under bye-law 3 are already accommodated there.

Bye-laws 5. — In the undermentioned localities no person shall admit any animal to a cattle stand when the number already admitted has reached the number fixed by the Chief Officer annually.

* Locality

* to be specified by the Council.

Bye-law 6. — The owner of a controllable cattle stand shall within such reasonable time as may be prescribed in the notice under bye-law 1 or any such subsequent notice remove from his cattle stand so many cattle as are in excess of the maximum prescribed for the time being by the Chief Officer and make such changes as the Chief Officer may prescribe in the arrangements of his cattle stand to bring it into conformity with the Municipal Standards, with such variations as the President may sanction in writing.

Bye-law 7. — If at the end of the term prescribed in the notice referred to in bye-law 6, the requirements of such notice have not been fulfilled, the owner of the controllable cattle stand shall forthwith cease to use premises as a cattle stand and shall not so use them until the said requirements have been fulfilled.

Bye-law 8. — No person shall use any premises as a cattle stand for more than one cattle unit, if such place lies within 50 feet of any source of drinking water supply within the same watershed or of any sewer or drain other than a road side drain used solely for storm water except with a licence from the Chief Officer. Such licence shall not be given when such premises lies within 20 feet of any source of drinking water supply, unless the whole premises is so paved and drained that there can be no soakage or drainage from it into the said source.

Bye-law 9. — Form of licence — (1) The licence shall be in the form appended.

(2) The fee for a licence shall be rupees ..... per annum which shall be paid in advance.

Bye-law 10. — No licence shall be granted to any person after the coming into force of these bye-laws unless the premises to be used as a cattle stand conforms with the standard prescribed by the Chief Officer in this behalf regarding the construction, space for each animal, ventilation, lighting drainage and water supply.

Provided that if an application for the continuation of the licence for a cattle stand is made after the coming into force of these bye-laws, such licence may be granted only on the applicant agreeing to carry out such alterations or repairs as may reasonably be possible with the provisions of the above bye-laws and as may be specified by the Chief Officer.

Bye-law 11. — The licensee shall take all necessary steps to prevent the accumulation of dung, urine or other fowl matter in the cattle-stand and shall at least once in 24 hours remove all such dung, urine or other fowl matters to some covered receptacles approved by the Chief Officer. The licensee shall provide an adequate number of receptacles, brooms, shovels and buckets for the cleaning of the cattle-stand.

Bye-law 12. — Whoever does or omits to do any act in contravention of any of the provisions of the bye-laws shall, on conviction be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees and in the case of continuing offence with further fine which may extend to fifty rupees for every day after the first during which such offence continues.
